ENDORSED BY CITIZEN BODY

Enthusiastic Meeting at the Court
House Last Night.

PROMINENT CITIZENS SPEAK.

Strong Set of Resolutions Adopted.
Offer of the Southern Stock-Mutual. Line of Defense Adopted

It was a large and representative body that met at the Court house last night in response to the call of Chairman Hunter, of the Industrial and Immigration Association. Every profession and nearly every business in town was represented. It was made up of just those men whom anybody would call together when something was to be done.

In the absence of Chairman Hunter who could not attend, C. H. Ireland called the meeting to order. Mr. Ireland after reviewing the causes that led to the meeting, stated its object in one pithy sentence. He said that the citizen body of Greensboro was called together "to throw itself into the breach and allow no competitor from any source to force one of her institutions to the wall." This sentiment was liberally applauded.

Attorney Scales spoke after Mr. Ireland, making an eloquent plea for the industries of the city and state. His speech sounded the keynote of the meeting and not a word was uttered by any of the speakers that was not a warm endorsement and approval of the home company.

George Sargent introduced the following resolutions which had been previously drafted and adopted by the executive committee of the Industrial and Immigration Association:

Whereas, the combination of outside fire insurance companies known as the South Eastern Tariff Association has made war upon the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company, of Greensboro, N. C., by a cut of 50 per cent in the prevailing rates of insurance; and

Whereas, it is not denied that this cut is aimed at and has for its purpose to drive the Southern Stock Mutual out of business; and

Whereas, it is the history of such wars as this by an outside combination upon a local competitor that as soon as local competition is suppressed, there is an immediate return to high rates, as a means of recouping the losses sustained while this war was on; and

Whereas, it is generally admitted that no reduction of rates would have been offered had not the Southern Stock-Mutual been a competitor; and

Whereas, it is self-evident that the cut rates are merely a temporary device and are not intended to work any permanent benefit or saving to the public; and

Whereas, the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company has since its organization reduced the cost of our insurance 20 per cent per annum and has saved the people of Greensboro and North Carolina thousands of dollars:—Now be it

Resolved, 1. That we, the business men of Greensboro, have a rare opportunity to rebuke what we consider high-handed and unlawful business methods, to hold up the hands of and strengthen a most deserving home institution, and to show to the world that there is a spirit of generous co-operation among the business men of Greensboro that will not allow any worthy home enterprise to suffer at the hands of an outside hostile combination;

2. That it would be short-sighted and unwise on the part of this community to withdraw its support from the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company; that to do this would be to place ourselves at the mercy of a combination of insurance companies; and that it is good policy, good business, and in the nature of a public duty, that the business men of Greensboro stand firmly by the home company.

3. That we recommend to the Southern Stock-Mutual as the only safe course for them, to maintain the regular rates, that to undertake meet the cut would be to cripple themselves and play into the hands of the South Eastern Tariff Association and contribute to their own defeat.

4. That we recommend further the following plan, which will support and strengthen the Southern Stock-Mutual as long as the rate war continues and at the same time give the public the benefit of the cut rates on all property upon which they cannot secure the Stock-Mutual's dividends.

First. We urge upon the people of Greensboro, as good business policy and as a matter of right, to see to it that all their property, such as the Southern Stock-Mutual, under its rules can insure, is insured in the Greensboro company at the regular rates.

Second. That insurance on such property as the Southern Stock-Mutual cannot handle, be placed at the cut rates in the other companies, and that the difference in premium between the cost of the insurance at cut rates and at the regular rates, or in other words, the amount saved in the transaction, be paid over to D. F. Caldwell, president of the Bank of Guilford, Neil Ellington, President of the Greensboro National Bank and J. M. Walker, president Piedmont Bank, and their successors in office as trustees for the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company, and that in return the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company issue for all such payments full paid non-assessable stock of the company, this stock to be on equal footing and to have same privileges as the remaining stock of the company.

The trustees above named to invest the money they receive and turn over annually to the said stockholders the income from this fund, until the remaining stock of the company has been fully paid by the surplus accumulations provided for in the charter of the company, at which time the guarantors' stock and the above described full paid stock will share alike in the surplus and future accumulations of the company.

The cash accumulations of the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company amount now to over $30,000, and on January 1st, 1898, the company's surplus will be not less than $8,000, so that the stock which it is proposed above to issue is already at a premium.

It is the sense of this meeting that this is a strictly business plan which will bring the home company out of this fight stronger financially than when it went into it, and at the same time be a means of profitable investment for the insuring public.

Mr. Sargent said after reading the resolutions that purely as a business proposition he thought they should be adopted.

Mr. McAlister was called out and explained the resolutions in detail. Dr. Bonbow, Dr. Bell, R. W. Brooks, and others questioned him. He said in reply to a question from Dr. Bonbow that the Southern Stock Mutual had never made a cut in its rates but have closely adhered to the policy outlined in its charter. It was excluded from the Southeastern Tariff Association because of its mutual feature. His remarks made a deep impression on the gathering which followed him closely.

John Wilson aroused enthusiasm by saying that this was but a single skirmish in what was to be the fight of the century and that it was a great principle for which they were contending. Uncle Frank Caldwell showed that despite age and feebleness there was fire and pith in him still. Robert Sloane spoke briefly and Mr. Wharton was called upon to give the history of a fight similar to the present one in Virginia.

Sam Brown and W. D. Mendenhall made inimitable speeches which created much merriment. They were followed by Mr. King and Mr. Wright. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

It should be noted that the local agents representing foreign companies were spoken of only in the highest terms and all speakers took pains to disclaim any intention of making a fight on them.

THE STATESVILLE BAND

Gave an Open Concert Last Night.
Reception Tendered its Members.

The Old North State band, of Statesville, eighteen pieces, came in last night enroute to Raleigh to play at the state fair. Dr. Chas. A. Turner is director. This clever gentleman, at one time, was a resident of Greensboro and a member of the Woodroffe-Alderman orchestra.

This band has new instruments, new uniforms and up-to-date music. They rendered a number of fine selections at the court house square, much to the delight of the large audience that had gathered to hear them.

After the open air concert the band was invited to the hospitable residence of Dr. Gregory, on Green street, where they partook of refreshments. After enjoying the hospitality of their host, and rendering some choice selections, the band left on the 1:30 train for Raleigh.

Cheap Gas.

Since October 1st, 1897, and forward, illuminating gas furnished at $2 per thousand feet, if bill is paid on presentation, provided the same amounts to $1 or more for each meter. Fuel gas for cooking purposes $1 per thousand feet, net.

GEORGE PULLMAN DEAD.

Was in Good Health When He Retired Last Night.

ALONE WHEN THE END CAME.

Began Life in a Country Store at Forty Dollars a Year. Died Many Times a Millionaire.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—George Pullman, the car magnate, died this morning of heart disease.

Pullman was apparently in good health when he retired last night. He has not complained of any ailments and nobody was present when the end came. He was at home at eighteenth street and Prairie avenue. Mrs. Pullman was in New York at the time of his death but left for Chicago this morning.

Pullman was fifty times over a millionaire, the founder of the town of Pullman and the revolutionizer of railroad travel.

He was born in Chataqua county, New York, on March the third 1831 and was one of seven children. His parents were poor country people and he started to work in a country store at Westfield New York at forty dollars per year. He has been successful in all his business dealings since.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Peter C. Hanes Appointed Engineer of the Commission.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Col. Peter C. Hanes of the engineer corps of the army, who is at present in charge of river and harbor improvements in the Baltimore district, has been appointed engineering commissioner of the Nicaragua Canal commission. He has accepted.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

Meets in the Senate Chamber at Raleigh Tonight.

Special To THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 19.—The State League of Young Republicans will be called to order at 7 o'clock this evening in the Senate chamber. The indications are that nearly every county in the state will be represented at this meeting.

To Be Married Tomorrow.

A pretty home wedding will be solemnized tomorrow afternoon at Mocksville at 4 o'clock.

The contracting parties will be Mr. Roland H. Hayes, of Pittsboro, a prominent and rising young lawyer and a partner of Judge Womack, and Miss Nannie Roberts, a most excellent and accomplished young lady of Mocksville. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. V. M. Swaim, of Davie county.

The bridal party will pass here Thursday noon going to their future home at Pittsboro, where they will be received and welcomed in the old fashioned hospitable style for which Pittsboro has long been noted.

He Was "Touched."

Joe Morgan, a carpenter, went to the circus Saturday, pulled out his wallet containing a hundred and twenty-seven dollars and paid for his ticket. Placing the money back in his pocket he started for the entrance of the show and before getting inside the tent was "touched" by one of the light fingered gentry and relieved of his money. He failed to promptly report the matter to the police and there is no clue.

This kind of thing is common at big circuses, and it is strange that a sensible man will carry money around and let it be seen at such a place.

Public Reception at Old Blandwood.

Messrs. Gray and Osborne are to be heartily congratulated on the general results of their expensive and tasteful remodeling and refurbishing of this grand old homestead. It is indeed a model home for a Keely Institute, or for a hotel or any other like purpose for which it might be desired. So many good citizens manifested a desire to inspect the same as it stands.

Col. Osborne invites all to come up next Thursday 21st, at 3 p. m. at 4 p. m. they will be addressed by Mr. Mowbray. Our word for it, a rarely gifted orator.

The place of business of Blaylock & White, dealers in bicycles and bicycle sundries, has been removed from South Elm to East Market street, No. 115. See their ad in this paper.

A SMALL WRECK.

Two Cars Derailed and Track Considerably Torn Up.

Today about noon as a freight train on the Southern was pulling out south-bound a misplaced switch frog near where the Southern crosses the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road caused an oil tank car to jump the track.

The oil car was next to the caboose and that too left the track, and for about fifty yards the track was badly torn up. A number of switch rods were broken and the forward truck of the oil car was smashed so that a new truck will have to be supplied before the car can be carried away. No one was hurt, though occupants of the caboose received a lively shaking up. The damage to the track will soon be repaired and small damage will result from the wreck.

CHANCES AGAINST LUETGERT.

Eight for Conviction and Four for Acquittal it is Said.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Luetgert jury sent a note to Judge Tuthill at 11:15 o'clock this morning, presumably for instructions.

It is not believed that the jury will disagree. It is current rumor that the jury stood all night at eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

WAITING FOR THE VERDICT.

Excitement Intense in the Luetgert Case.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Judge Tuthill is waiting for word from the jury that has Luetgert's life in its hands. The corridors of the court room are crowded and the excitement intense.

Later—A message received later says Luetgert is pronounced not guilty.

Sagasta Still in Bed.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 18.—Senor Sagasta, the Spanish prime minister, is still confined to his bed. His physicians say the cause is overwork.

THE PASSING OF CHAS. A. DANA.

In the death of Charles A. Dana journalism loses its most brilliant representative on this side of the water. Possessed of a marked individuality, vast knowledge, trenchant style, keen intellect and a withering power of sarcasm he has been a striking figure and even a strong factor in the life of the past thirty years. Many men have tried conclusions with him but it is doubtful whether one ever had cause to congratulate himself upon the fact.

The most striking feature of Mr. Dana was that he alone of all contemporary journalists was not swallowed by journalism. He was greater than his profession, greater than his paper. The New York Sun was Charles A. Dana. There are other great papers in New York; the Sun may remain a great paper; but all of these papers are, and the Sun will be, the product of aggregate talent. The Sun has been the product of Charles A. Dana. The unit was not lost in the mass.

Picturesque and interesting Mr. Dana was by no means always right. Indeed it would be hard to find a man of such keen sagacity who was so frequently in the wrong. It is possible that being in the wrong from the point of view of the many did not cause him great concern; it gave him an opportunity to display his talent. He liked to invite criticism for the pleasure of a bout with the critic.

Like so many brilliant men his course was erratic, his career very inconsistent. There were few men whose interests touched his in any way who have not been at some time both his friends and his enemies. No man of his day had so large a capacity for making enemies and so excellent a facility in taking care of them. He was too multifarious and many sided to grip any principle very tenaciously; too cool and critical to make fast friends. "Life and light have gone away side by side."

EX-PRESIDENT Harrison who is in New York says: "If I don't get out of town soon I am afraid I shall find myself in the melee." Mele is distinctly good. It fits the situation a little better than any other term that has been applied to it. The General is too old to take part in the scuffle. Ex-secretary Tracy would have done well to reach the same wise conclusion.

The statement is gravely made that Mr. Butler is ready for another campaign. The value of this as a piece of news is sensibly diminished by the abiding knowledge that Mr. Butler's air pressure is always above par.

YALE men are much wrought up over the question: Is Yale's spirit waning? There are certain parts of Yale's spirit that can suffer a wane to the distinct advantage of all parties concerned.

The Baltimore Sun will now strike an attitude and invite Mr. Gorman to lay on.

NEW YORK's leper colony has escaped in a body. Who can blame them?

We acknowledge the receipt of the handsome card being issued by the invitation committee of the Tobacco Fair to be held at Winston.

SENATOR Morgan's announcement that his visit to Honolulu has given him a "fund of information" will hardly be received with unmixed delight by his senatorial compeers.

LI HUNG CHANG wishes to retire from public life. Li is a shrewd customer and probably considers that it is well to be content with past glory and an uncropped pig tail.

The vigilance of the United States authorities toward the filibustering expeditions is of about the same proof as the Spanish article that Miss Cisneros evaded.

General News in a Nutshell.

Missouri Day was celebrated at the Tennessee Centennial exposition.

Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, died at his home, in Glen Cove, Long Island, aged seventy-eight years.

The coasting steamer Triton was wrecked on the Cuban coast, and it is believed one hundred and fifty people drowned.

A servant of Wm. T. Townes, of Virginia, United States consul to Rio Janeiro, made an unsuccessful attempt to murder him.

The validity of the removals of deputy collectors of internal revenue has been referred to Attorney McKenna for a final decision.

The number of voters who have registered in Greater New York for the approaching election is only a few thousand less than last year.

The fiftieth birthday of Rev. Sam Jones was observed at his home at Cartersville, Ga., with a dinner party at which there were fifty guests.

Admiral John L. Worden, retired, died in Washington yesterday. He commanded the Monitor at the time of its engagement with the Merrimack in Hampton Roads during the late war.

The British Cabinet met on Sunday and considered the proposition to reopen the Indian mints to silver, as proposed by Senator Wolcott. It is understood the decision was against the proposition.

The executive committee of the National Municipal League has issued an address to "the friends of good government in the United States," the burden of which is a denunciation of Tammany Hall, and a plea for the election of Seth Low as mayor of Greater New York.

BAYARD'S FUTURE WORK.

It is Said That He Will Represent London Capital Here.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 18—It is reported in this city that former Ambassador Thomas F. Bayard, who is now in Europe, will become the eastern representative of London capitalists, and that he will open an office in New York upon his return to America. It is further said that Mr. Bayard will receive a salary equal to that of the president of the United States.

Mr. Bayard's hasty return to London after he concluded his mission as Ambassador to England was regarded here at first as a purely personal visit, but it is rumored that he was asked to meet a number of capitalists.

Procession at the Fair Today.

The procession at the state fair formed in front of the Yarboro at 11:30 as follows:

Statesville band.
Governor's Guards.
Marshals mounted.
Governor Russell.
President and ex-president of the fair.

State officers.
Citizens in carriages.
Bicycle club.
The procession moved up Fayetteville and Hillsboro streets to the fair grounds.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alternative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. 50c. and $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A Luxurious Home

that has been fitted up by an artist's eye never has the "soul of the room" omitted in the glowing grate fire under the mantel. And the wise housekeeper knows that the best plan to keep dirt and ashes from spoiling her furniture is to buy her coal from our yard, where she will get clean, well-screened Tennessee and Virginia Coal that doesn't need replenishing often, and that throws out a strong, steady heat.

A. Day by Grace Waddy by deed dated August 28th, 1889, recorded in book 84, page 659.

This sale will be made subject to the approval of the Court, and will be immediately reported to the court for confirmation.

This 1st day of Oct. 1897.

R. D. DOUGLAS,
Commissioner.

Administrator's Notice and Sale.

Having qualified as administrator of T. C. Lamb, deceased, late of Guilford county, N. C., before Ed. L. Ragan, clerk of the superior court of said county, I hereby notify all persons indebted to said estate to make immediate payment; and all persons having claims against said estate to present the same to me daily authenticated on or before the 10th day of September, 1898, or this notice will be placed in bar of their recovery.

This is also to give notice that at the late residence of said deceased in said county, I shall sell for cash to the highest bidder, on Thursday, the 30th day of September, 1897, the personal property of said estate, consisting of two mules, one horse, ten head of hogs, lot of wheat, lot of oats, farming and smith tools and other articles, too numerous to mention.

This 7th day of September, 1897.

NEWS OF THE TAR HEEL STATE.

Fifty buildings are in course of erection at Pinehurst, Mr. Tuft's new place, Moore county.

The drought in Rockingham county is growing alarming. The ground is in such a dry condition the farmers are unable to prepare for the sowing of wheat.

There were shipped from Morehead 145 boxes, more than nine tons, of fish, mostly mackerel. They were caught off Beaufort, and it was one of the largest catches ever made there.

The authorities of Wilmington have refused to allow a car load of rice, shipped from New Orleans, to enter the city. The car stands at the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley station, outside the city.

J. G. Grant killed a four-horned buck that weighed about 100 pounds this week. He and Mr. J. R. Carson were together. The dogs had bayed the deer in Buck creek one mile above the falls.—Marion Messenger.

William Brogdon, living some twelve miles from Durham, was driving home from that place when his pair of mules became frightened and ran away throwing him out and killing him instantly. He was frightfully mutilated.

There will be a meeting of the executive committee of the North Carolina State Farmers' Alliance at the state treasury department at 2 p. m. Wednesday. The shoe factory problem is to be considered. An effort is being made to secure a good man to manage the factory.

News comes from Ridgeway, Warren county, the High School building there was burned Sunday night. The cost of the building was $10,000. The origin of the fire could not be learned. The school was taught by Prof. John Graham, president of the North Carolina Farmer's State Alliance, and was one of the largest and best schools of the kind in that section of the State. Prior to the establishment of the Soldiers' Home it was proposed to use this building for that purpose, but because of certain donations of property in Raleigh the Home was established there.

Review of Pension Cases.

Washington, Oct. 18.—Assistant Secretary of the Interior Webster Davis has made his annual report to the secretary of the interior. The report states that during the past fiscal year the pension office was sustained in 3,084 appeal cases and reversed in 389 cases. There were reconsidered by the pension office pending appeal 327 cases; 474 appeal cases were dismissed, 1,742 appeal cases were pending July 1; original appeal cases were filed as follows: July, 754; August, 489; September, 884.

Italian Emigrants Poisoned.

Genoa, Oct. 18.—Four hundred emigrants on board the Italian steamer Agordat, bound from this port for Santos, Brazil, have been poisoned by verdigris, which had become attached to the vessels in which their food was cooked. It is expected that many of the sufferers will lose their lives as a result of this accident.

Stands at the Head.

Aug. J. Bogel, the leading druggist of Shreveport, La., says: "Dr. King's New Discovery is the only thing that cures my cough, and it is the best seller I have." J. P. Campbell, merchant of Safford, Ariz., writes: "Dr. King's New Discovery is all that is claimed for it; it never fails, and is a sure cure for consumption, coughs and colds. I cannot say enough for its merits." Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds is not an experiment. It has been tried for a quarter of a century, and today stands at the head. It never disappoints. Free trial bottles at C. A. Holton's drug store.

John R. Morris, the well known drummer and newspaper correspondent, stopped at the McAdoo last night and is here today.

JUST ANY OLD CANDIDATE.

Says President McKinley in the May orality Fight.

R. H. Hayes, of Pittsboro, spent last night in the city. Mr. Hayes is a prominent young attorney and is the law partner of Judge T. B. Wornack.

John W. Phillips, of Norfolk, spent last night in the city. He has been on a protracted visit to his father's family in Chatham, and returned to Norfolk this morning where he holds a position in the railway offices.

Trinity College Items.

The debaters for the inter-collegiate debate between Wake Forest and Trinity, to be held in Raleigh on Thanksgiving night, Nov. 25th, have been chosen, as follows: J. M. Flowers, of Taylorsville, S. W. Stewart, of Monroe, and H. M. North, of Salisbury. The question to be debated is: "Ought the system of water works, lighting and street cars to be operated by the city for its people, or by private individuals?" Trinity has the affirmative side.

Thursday, October 21st, will be a holiday, giving the students an opportunity to attend the State Fair at Raleigh.

The Y. M. C. A. was conducted Sunday afternoon by Prof. Mims; subject: "Isaiah."

Mr. C. L. Dickerson was called home last week on account of his father's death at Beaufort.

Mr. W. N. Parker has returned to College after a brief illness.

Dr. Kilgo went to Raleigh last Saturday where he spoke twice yesterday. He makes several speeches in the eastern part of the state this week—at Plymouth, Hertford and Elizabeth City.

CHARLOTTE, N. C., April 5, 1895.

MRS. JOE PERSON.

Madam:—last year I was afflicted with some skin trouble affecting my feet, pronounced by my physician to be erythema. I was confined to my room for some two months and was lame for six months or more. After trying many remedies without effecting a cure, I resorted to your Remedy. After taking three bottles I began to improve, and before I had finished the fifth or sixth bottle I was practically free of the trouble. Once since then there has been no return of the trouble, when I again resorted to your Remedy, and again the trouble disappeared. I believe I am indebted to you for relief from a very serious affliction.

Yours truly,

ENDORSED BY CITIZEN BODY

Enthusiastic Meeting at the Court
House Last Night.

PROMINENT CITIZENS SPEAK.

Strong Set of Resolutions Adopted.
Offer of the Southern Stock-Mutual. Line of Defense Adopted

It was a large and representative body that met at the Court house last night in response to the call of Chairman Hunter, of the Industrial and Immigration Association. Every profession and nearly every business in town was represented. It was made up of just those men whom anybody would call together when something was to be done.

In the absence of Chairman Hunter who could not attend, C. H. Ireland called the meeting to order. Mr. Ireland after reviewing the causes that led to the meeting, stated its object in one pithy sentence. He said that the citizen body of Greensboro was called together "to throw itself into the breach and allow no competitor from any source to force one of her institutions to the wall." This sentiment was liberally applauded.

Attorney Scales spoke after Mr. Ireland, making an eloquent plea for the industries of the city and state. His speech sounded the keynote of the meeting and not a word was uttered by any of the speakers that was not a warm endorsement and approval of the home company.

George Sargent introduced the following resolutions which had been previously drafted and adopted by the executive committee of the Industrial and Immigration Association:

Whereas, the combination of outside fire insurance companies known as the South Eastern Tariff Association has made war upon the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company, of Greensboro, N. C., by a cut of 50 per cent in the prevailing rates of insurance; and

Whereas, it is not denied that this cut is aimed at and has for its purpose to drive the Southern Stock Mutual out of business; and

Whereas, it is the history of such wars as this by an outside combination upon a local competitor that as soon as local competition is suppressed, there is an immediate return to high rates, as a means of recouping the losses sustained while this war was on; and

Whereas, it is generally admitted that no reduction of rates would have been offered had not the Southern Stock-Mutual been a competitor; and

Whereas, it is self-evident that the cut rates are merely a temporary device and are not intended to work any permanent benefit or saving to the public; and

Whereas, the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company has since its organization reduced the cost of our insurance 20 per cent per annum and has saved the people of Greensboro and North Carolina thousands of dollars;—Now be it

Resolved, 1. That we, the business men of Greensboro, have a rare opportunity to rebuke what we consider high-handed and unlawful business methods, to hold up the hands of and strengthen a most deserving home institution, and to show to the world that there is a spirit of generous co-operation among the business men of Greensboro that will not allow any worthy home enterprise to suffer at the hands of an outside hostile combination;

2. That it would be short-sighted and unwise on the part of this community to withdraw its support from the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance Company; that to do this would be to place ourselves at the mercy of a combination of insurance companies; and that it is good policy, good business, and in the nature of a public duty, that the business men of Greensboro stand firmly by the home company.

3. That we recommend to the Southern Stock-Mutual as the only safe course for them, to maintain the regular rates, that to undertake meet the cut would be to cripple themselves and play into the hands of the South Eastern Tariff Association and contribute to their own defeat.

4. That we recommend further the following plan, which will support and strengthen the Southern Stock-Mutual as long as the rate war continues and at the same time give the public the benefit of the cut rates on all property upon which they cannot secure the Stock-Mutual's dividends.

First. We urge upon the people of Greensboro, as good business policy and as a matter of right, to see to it that their property, such as the Southern Stock-Mutual, under its rules can insure, is insured in the Greensboro company at the regular rates.

Second. That insurance on such property as the Southern Stock-Mutual cannot handle, be placed at the cut rates in the other companies, and that the difference in premium between the cost of the insurance at cut rates and at the regular rates, or in other words, the amount saved in the transaction, be paid over to D. F. Caldwell, president of the Bank of Guilford, Neil Ellington, President of the Greensboro National Bank and J. M. Walker, president Piedmont Bank, and their successors in office as trustees for the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company, and that in return the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company issue for all such payments full paid non-assessable stock of the company, this stock to be on equal footing and to have same privileges as the remaining stock of the company.

The trustees above named to invest the money they receive and turn over annually to the said stockholders the income from this fund, until the remaining stock of the company has been fully paid by the surplus accumulations provided for in the charter of the company, at which time the guarantors' stock and the above described full paid stock will share alike in the surplus and future accumulations of the company.

The cash accumulations of the Southern Stock-Mutual Insurance company amount now to over $30,000, and on January 1st, 1898, the company's surplus will be not less than $8,000, so that the stock which it is proposed above to issue is already at a premium.

It is the sense of this meeting that this is a strictly business plan which will bring the home company out of this fight stronger financially than when it went into it, and at the same time be a means of profitable investment for the insuring public.

Mr. Sargent said after reading the resolutions that purely as a business proposition he thought they should be adopted.

Mr. McAllister was called out and explained the resolutions in detail. Dr. Benbow, Dr. Bell, R. W. Brooks, and others questioned him. He said in reply to a question from Dr. Benbow that the Southern Stock Mutual had never made a cut in its rates but have closely adhered to the policy outlined in its charter. It was excluded from the Southeastern Tariff Association because of its mutual feature. His remarks made a deep impression on the gathering which followed him closely.

John Wilson aroused enthusiasm by saying that this was but a single skirmish in what was to be the fight of the century and that it was a great principle for which they were contending. Uncle Frank Caldwell showed that despite age and feebleness there was fire and pith in him still. Robert Sloane spoke briefly and Mr. Wharton was called upon to give the history of a fight similar to the present one in Virginia.

Sam Brown and W. D. Mendenhall made inimitable speeches which created much merriment. They were followed by Mr. King and Mr. Wright. The resolutions were unanimously adopted.

It should be noted that the local agents representing foreign companies were spoken of only in the highest terms and all speakers took pains to disclaim any intention of making a fight on them.

THE STATESVILLE BAND

Gave an Open Concert Last Night.
Reception Tendered its Members.

The Old North State band, of Statesville, eighteen pieces, came in last night enroute to Raleigh to play at the state fair. Dr. Chas. A. Turner is director. This clever gentleman, at one time, was a resident of Greensboro and a member of the Woodroffe-Alderman orchestra.

This band has new instruments, new uniforms and up to date music. They rendered a number of fine selections at the court house square, much to the delight of the large audience that had gathered to hear them.

After the open air concert the band was invited to the hospitable residence of Dr. Gregory, on Green street, where they partook of refreshments. After enjoying the hospitality of their host, and rendering some choice selections, the band left on the 1:30 train for Raleigh.

Cheap Gas.

GEORGE PULLMAN DEAD.

Was in Good Health When He Retired Last Night.

ALONE WHEN THE END CAME.

Began Life in a Country Store at Forty Dollars a Year. Died Many Times a Millionaire.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—George Pullman, the car magnate, died this morning of heart disease.

Pullman was apparently in good health when he retired last night. He has not complained of any ailments and nobody was present when the end came. He was at home at eighteenth street and Prairie avenue. Mrs. Pullman was in New York at the time of his death but left for Chicago this morning.

Pullman was fifty times over a millionaire, the founder of the town of Pullman and the revolutionizer of railroad travel.

He was born in Chataqua county, New York, on March the third 1831 and was one of seven children. His parents were poor country people and he started to work in a country store at Westfield New York at forty dollars per year. He has been successful in all his business dealings since.

THE NICARAGUA CANAL.

Peter C. Hanes Appointed Engineer of the Commission.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Washington, Oct. 19.—Col. Peter C. Hanes of the engineer corps of the army, who is at present in charge of river and harbor improvements in the Baltimore district, has been appointed engineering commissioner of the Nicaragua Canal commission. He has accepted.

YOUNG REPUBLICAN LEAGUE

Meets in the Senate Chamber at Raleigh Tonight.

Special to THE TELEGRAM.

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 19.—The State League of Young Republicans will be called to order at 7 o'clock this evening in the Senate chamber. The indications are that nearly every county in the state will be represented at this meeting.

To Be Married Tomorrow.

A pretty home wedding will be solemnized tomorrow afternoon at Mocksville at 4 o'clock.

The contracting parties will be Mr. Roland H. Hayes, of Pittsboro, a prominent and rising young lawyer and a partner of Judge Womack, and Miss Nannie Roberts, a most excellent and accomplished young lady of Mocksville. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. V. M. Swain, of Davie county.

The bridal party will pass here Thursday noon going to their future home at Pittsboro, where they will be received and welcomed in the old fashioned hospitable style for which Pittsboro has long been noted.

He Was "Touched."

Joe Morgan, a carpenter, went to the circus Saturday, pulled out his wallet containing a hundred and twenty-seven dollars and paid for his ticket. Placing the money back in his pocket he started for the entrance of the show and before getting inside the tent was "touched" by one of the light fingered gentry and relieved of his money. He failed to promptly report the matter to the police and there is no clue.

This kind of thing is common at big circuses, and it is strange that a sensible man will carry money around and let it be seen at such a place.

Public Reception at Old Blandwood.

Messrs. Gray and Osborne are to be heartily congratulated on the general results of their expensive and tasteful remodeling and refurbishing of this grand old homestead. It is indeed a model home for a Keely Institute, or for a hotel or any other like purpose for which it might be desired. So many good citizens manifested a desire to inspect the same as it stands.

Col. Osborne invites all to come up next Thursday 21st, at 3 p. m. at 4 p. m. they will be addressed by Mr. Mowbray. Our word for it, a rarely gifted orator.

O. 19 2t.
The place of business of Blaylock & White, dealers in bicycles and bicycle sundries, has been removed from South Elm to East Market street, No. 115. See their ad in this paper.

A SMALL WRECK.

Two Cars Derailed and Track Considerably Torn Up.

Today about noon as a freight train on the Southern was pulling out south-bound a misplaced switch frog near where the Southern crosses the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley road caused an oil tank car to jump the track.

The oil car was next to the caboose and that too left the track, and for about fifty yards the track was badly torn up. A number of switch rods were broken and the forward truck of the oil car was smashed so that a new truck will have to be supplied before the car can be carried away. No one was hurt, though occupants of the caboose received a lively shaking up. The damage to the track will soon be repaired and small damage will result from the wreck.

CHANCES AGAINST LUETGERT.

Eight for Conviction and Four for Acquittal it is Said.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—The Luetgert jury sent a note to Judge Tuthill at 11:15 o'clock this morning, presumably for instructions.

It is not believed that the jury will disagree. It is current rumor that the jury stood all night at eight for conviction and four for acquittal.

WAITING FOR THE VERDICT.

Excitement Intense in the Luetgert Case.

By Wire To THE TELEGRAM.

Chicago, Oct. 19.—Judge Tuthill is waiting for word from the jury that has Luetgert's life in its hands. The corridors of the court room are crowded and the excitement intense.

Later—A message received later says Luetgert is pronounced not guilty.

Sagasta Still in Bed.

By Cable To THE TELEGRAM.

Madrid, Oct. 18.—Senor Sagasta, the Spanish prime minister, is still confined to his bed. His physicians say the cause is overwork.

THE PASSING OF CHAS. A. DANA.

In the death of Charles A. Dana journalism loses its most brilliant representative on this side of the water. Possessed of a marked individuality, vast knowledge, trenchant style, keen intellect and a withering power of sarcasm he has been a striking figure and even a strong factor in the life of the past thirty years. Many men have tried conclusions with him but it is doubtful whether one ever had cause to congratulate himself upon the fact.

The most striking feature of Mr. Dana was that he alone of all contemporary journalists was not swallowed by journalism. He was greater than his profession, greater than his paper. The New York Sun was Charles A. Dana. There are other great papers in New York; the Sun may remain a great paper; but all of these papers are, and the Sun will be, the product of aggregate talent. The Sun has been the product of Charles A. Dana. The unit was not lost in the mass.

Picturesque and interesting Mr. Dana was by no means always right. Indeed it would be hard to find a man of such keen sagacity who was so frequently in the wrong. It is possible that being in the wrong from the point of view of the many did not cause him great concern; it gave him an opportunity to display his talent. He liked to invite criticism for the pleasure of a bout with the critic.

Like so many brilliant men his course was erratic, his career very inconsistent. There were few men whose interests touched his in any way who have not been at some time both his friends and his enemies. No man of his day had so large a capacity for making enemies and so excellent a facility in taking care of them. He was too multifarious and many sided to grip any principle very tenaciously; too cool and critical to make fast friends. "Life and light have gone away side by side."

EX-PRESIDENT Harrison who is in New York says: "If I don't get out of town soon I am afraid I shall find myself in the melee." Mele is distinctly good. It fits the situation a little better than any other term that has been applied to it. The General is too old to take part in the scuffle. Ex-secretary Tracy would have done well to reach the same wise conclusion.

THE statement is gravely made that Mr. Butler is ready for another campaign. The value of this as a piece of news is sensibly diminished by the abiding knowledge that Mr. Butler's air pressure is always above par.

YALE men are much wrought up over the question: Is Yale's spirit waning? There are certain parts of Yale's spirit that can suffer a wane to the distinct advantage of all parties concerned.

THE Baltimore Sun will now strike an attitude and invite Mr. Gorman to lay on.

NEW YORK's leper colony has escaped in a body. Who can blame them?

We acknowledge the receipt of the handsome card being issued by the invitation committee of the Tobacco Fair to be held at Winston.

SENATOR Morgan's announcement that his visit to Honolulu has given him a "fund of information" will hardly be received with unmixed delight by his senatorial compeers.

LI HUNG CHANG wishes to retire from public life. Li is a shrewd customer and probably considers that it is well to be content with past glory and an uncropped pig tail.

THE vigilance of the United States authorities toward the filibustering expeditions is of about the same proof as the Spanish article that Miss Cisneros evaded.

General News in a Nutshell.

Missouri Day was celebrated at the Tennessee Centennial exposition.

Charles A. Dana, editor of the New York Sun, died at his home, in Glen Cove, Long Island, aged seventy-eight years.

The coasting steamer Triton was wrecked on the Cuban coast, and it is believed one hundred and fifty people drowned.

A servant of Wm. T. Townes, of Virginia, United States consul to Rio Janeiro, made an unsuccessful attempt to murder him.

The validity of the removals of deputy collectors of internal revenue has been referred to Attorney McKenna for a final decision.

The number of voters who have registered in Greater New York for the approaching election is only a few thousand less than last year.

The fiftieth birthday of Rev. Sam Jones was observed at his home at Cartersville, Ga., with a dinner party at which there were fifty guests.

Admiral John L. Worden, retired, died in Washington yesterday. He commanded the Monitor at the time of its engagement with the Merrimac in Hampton Roads during the late war.

The British Cabinet met on Sunday and considered the proposition to reopen the Indian mints to silver, as proposed by Senator Wolcott. It is understood the decision was against the proposition.

The executive committee of the National Municipal League has issued an address to "the friends of good government in the United States," the burden of which is a denunciation of Tammany Hall, and a plea for the election of Seth Low as mayor of Greater New York.

BAYARD'S FUTURE WORK.

It is Said That He Will Represent London Capital Here.

Wilmington, Del., Oct. 18.—It is reported in this city that former Ambassador Thomas F. Bayard, who is now in Europe, will become the eastern representative of London capitalists, and that he will open an office in New York upon his return to America. It is further said that Mr. Bayard will receive a salary equal to that of the president of the United States.

Mr. Bayard's hasty return to London after he concluded his mission as Ambassador to England was regarded here at first as a purely personal visit, but it is rumored that he was asked to meet a number of capitalists.

Procession at the Fair Today.

The procession at the state fair formed in front of the Yarboro at 11-30 as follows:

Statesville band.
Governor's Guards.
Marshals mounted.
Governor Russell.
President and ex-president of the fair.

State officers.
Citizens in carriages.
Bicycle club.
The procession moved up Fayetteville and Hillsboro streets to the fair grounds.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed when the languid, exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. It costs $1.00 per bottle at C. E. Holton's drug store.

A Luxurious Home

that has been fitted up by an artist's eye never has the "soul of the room" omitted in the glowing grate fire under the mantel. And the wise housekeeper knows that the best plan to keep dirt and ashes from spoiling her furniture is to buy her coal from our yard, where she will get clean, well-screened Tennessee and Virginia Coal that doesn't need replenishing often, and that throws out a strong, steady heat.

THE SCALCHI COMPANY.

Was Caught on the Fly as it Were.
At G. F. C. Saturday Night.

The bill posting that is customary would be too late to attract general notice. So that our people may fully know the nature of this rare opportunity, we give the opinion of some of our prominent musical people:

I have had the pleasure of hearing Mme. Scalchi in Mascagni's superb opera, Cavalleria Rusticana. I can, unhesitatingly, say her work was ever worthy of her subject, and was without doubt the most magnificent thing I have ever heard.

Z. V. TAYLOR.

I have heard Madame Scalchi in grand opera, as well as on concert stage, and know that she one of the most celebrated artists of her time. She has a magnificent contralto voice, and the opportunity to hear her should not be lost.

MISS C. B. ORR.

I am greatly pleased that Greensboro is to have the opportunity of hearing the world renowned contralto, Mme. Sofia Scalchi. No artist of her attainments and reputation has visited this city since my residence here, and all who love good music should, without fail, hear her. Her career in grand opera, in both Europe and America, has been one of pronounced success, and during several seasons she appeared in opera with Patti, sharing the honors with that lady in no unequal degree.

PROF. CLARENCE R. BROWN.

I am very glad to know that my desire to hear one of the world's great contraltos will be fulfilled through the world-renowned Madame Scalchi, a pleasure I had not hoped to have in Greensboro.

MISS LAURA L. BROCKMANN.

To hear Madame Scalchi, the great contralto, supported by a soprano, a mezzo soprano, a tenor and a baritone, all trained grand opera singers, is an education in vocal music.

PROF. CHAS. J. BROCKMANN.

Our citizens may have no fear in attending the concert at the G. F. College next Saturday evening by the company head by Mme. Scalchi, but that they will hear one of the most finished singers, and one of the greatest voices of modern times.

PROF. J. W. PARKER.

I know that by reputation Scalchi is one of the most famous singers in the world, and to hear her will be a rare treat to Greensboro.

MRS. J. B. GUNTHER.

The Scalchi company is, without doubt, the strongest vocal attraction that has ever visited Greensboro.

GEORGE WOODROFFE.

All who fail to hear Scalchi Saturday night will miss a rare musical treat.

MISS A. M. SNEED.

Miss Doub could not be seen this morning, but we understand she has heard Scalchi in Boston, and fully indorses her.

This excellent company will be at the Greensboro Female College chapel next Saturday night.

A SMALL SCRAP.

Knock Down Blow and an Attempt at Carving.

A small sized scrap occurred on S. Elm street last night in front of West's Kandy Kitchen. It appears that Claude Elam and Will McClamrock had an altercation over some hard names one of them had been calling the other.

McClamrock acknowledged to Elam that he had called him "names," whereupon Elam promptly knocked him down. McClamrock arose and was very mad, as a man would naturally be after being knocked down, and he swiped Elam with a knife, cutting a small gash in his neck. The wound, however, is trifling.

Somebody said that Elam used a pair of knuckles, but others dispute the statement.

Officer Jordan served a warrant on the young men and they have a hearing this afternoon before the mayor.

Self Explanatory.

Durham, Oct. 19, 1897.

W. J. Blackburn.

Greensboro, N. C.
The Joshua Simpkins company played here last night to a packed house. Everybody delighted.

E. C. Hackney, Manager.

Bicycle Parade.

There will be a big bicycle parade at the Tobacco Fair in Winston. D. H. Blair the manager says "The Greensboro wheelmen are most cordially invited to bring their wheels and join the procession." The date is November the fifth.

R. D. Douglas went to Raleigh on the noon train to be present at the organization of the Young Men's Republican League.

Mrs. J. W. Moore, of South Carolina, came up to accompany her daughter to the fair and to spend a day at Greensboro's excellent college.

The remains of Miss Mamie Harper, who died suddenly in Salem yesterday, passed here last night and were carried to her home at Finch, N. C., for interment.

Tonight the Academy of Music will be opened for the season by the Joshua Simpkins Company. Reserved seats on sale at Gardner's drugstore, price fifty cents.

If you are contemplating wearing collars this winter (and we would advise all to wear no man's collar but their own) read the new ad of Matthews, Chisholm & Stroud.

J. R. Justice, the faithful and capable city editor of the Winston Journal, has retired from that position, announcing his withdrawal in a graceful card published in that paper yesterday. We hope that his pencil will not long be idle, but that we can have the pleasure very soon of seeing him in the harness again.
